“Melissa’s approach to financial management delves so much deeper than just the typical creation and reconciling of budgets.

She helped me understand the framework of how and why I process money and its value and effect in my life. She helped me liberate my thinking and relationship with money. This experience empowered me to chase and achieve long-term goals and bucket list items I’d long ago set aside. Thank you Melissa, you are a gift!”

- LINNETT, CLIENT

Money touches every area of your life, so it’s important to identify what’s blocking your profits. Cleaning up your relationship with money has a domino effect, it improves all aspects of your life.

Melissa Ternes is a Wealth and Money Coach, speaker, author and CEO of Master Your Money Now. Her unique approach, marrying the woo and the do of money, blends brain and body science, with NLP, practical strategies and your unique money history to unblock your profits.
